Queen Elizabeth Park, British Columbia

vanfoodies Summer is here, let's go outside! What are some of your favourite spots near your neighbourhood?

It's exciting to see the sun finally shining! PSA While it's fun to go hiking and camping, or travel a bit further to explore other parts of the province, don't forget our own backyard. Local parks and attractions are open with COVID measures to ensure our health and safety. It was easy enough for me to stop by QE Park for a stroll. Now is the time to appreciate the beauty of our own community when other travellers can't.

jminter You don't have to go far to feel like you've gone far. Take a trip to the tropics at @vanaqua.

What's your favourite local attraction? Many of #Vancouver's attractions are reopening to bring back summer activities and provide much needed revenues & jobs for our friends in tourism. If we stay safe when out and about, more attractions, arts and entertainment will hopefully follow.

Lions Gate Bridge

nicolamarrison We are tourism: how you can help

We won't be seeing these magnificent vessels passing under the Lions Gate Bridge this summer and their absence is greatly noticed.

The long term survival of tourism in Vancouver is depending on you to keep things afloat (no pun intended)

Here's a few ways you can do that:

- 1 Share your industry stories using #vancouvercomeback and #wearetourism
- 2 Take a day trip and visit a local attraction
- 3 Book a staycation – hotels need you too!

There are some insane deals and promotions right now. DM me if you need help finding the most bang for your buck!

Keep wandering xoxo
